

Dear Inland Crafts Patron,

January 2, 2012

Many thanks to all of you collectively from the Directors of Inland Crafts for attending our past events. Many artists have commented about having a great experience showing in Spokane and interacting with our audience.

29 forever

Inland Crafts, incorporated as Inland Craft Warnings is closing. From 1983 to 2011 Inland Crafts is a memorable chapter in Spokane Art History. Hundreds of dollars earned by seven participating artists in 1983 to over $162,000.00 earned in 2011, adding up to over 3 million dollars of original works sold at our 29 events.

“We have fulfilled our mission statement of hosting a venue for Inland Northwest artists to exhibit and sell fine, contemporary crafts to Spokane patrons. Many Artists have experienced some of their finest show experiences due to Inland Crafts and have met an appreciative public audience.”

Former Inland Crafts artists have evolved, due in part to their experiences from Inland Crafts. Including several whom now maintain profitable studios, have gallery representation in the area, sell wholesale to major corporations, and host their own weekend events.

Patrons from the Inland Northwest have experienced a fine sampling of the best contemporary crafts from our area and have added to their collections as well as giving fine gifts over the past 29 years.

We wish you success in all you do!

Inland Crafts Board,

Wendy Zupan Bailey, Louise Kodis, Amy Mickelson, and Gay Waldman
